I was placed on restricted sick leave through false statements and fraudulent writings or documents by Ms. Humphries. On August 19, 1999, I was called into the station managers office along with Mr. Vespaiani as my union representative, because I was the union steward for the station and was given the restricted sick leave letter. This was my first meeting about my attendance or absences. Since Mr. Vespaiani had been called in as my union representative, I asked Mr. Vespaiani to file a grievance on the restricted sick leave letter, but he did not. After receiving the restricted sick leave letter, I was continuously harassed by management. In October Mr Vespaiani was voted in as the station's union steward. In January, Mr. Vespaiani stepped down as steward and Mr Jimmie Highsmith was appointed steward by Mr. John Monta without having an election or anything. I was continuously misrepresented by the union. In September and October of 2000, my rights were continuously violated by management and was wrongfully terminated.

Payment of all court cost and attorney fees.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
